SHORT EDITORIALS.

On account of the extreme length of the Fown Ordinance elsewhere published, we are constrained to withhold from the readers of the Morning Appeal a certain carefully prepared editorial article concerning the Correlative Conjunctiveness of Concrete Cussedness as classified with Certain Comparative Conditions of Congenital Comprehensiveness. Of course so wide and far reaching a subject as this cannot be treated (save to the most superficial and comprehensive manner); and as our article contemplates the occupancy of not less that three or four columns of solid nonpared, (we may possibly "hire a hall"), of course we give way to the not-less-important Ordinance of our Fathers: Let the lawless, the lewd, the teckless and the evasive real, ponder, refleet and tremide. Meantime we advise everyhody to salt down this Ordinance for future reference. As to the Mountain Appear extrapapers containing the Ordinauco can be obtained at this office this morning.

THE SIVER BILL PASSED OVER THE PRESIDENT'S VETO.

Washington, Pels. 28. At 1540 he Speaker hard the veto message before the House, and perfect order having been secured, appointed a clerk, who read it. The President says it has been his earnest desire to concur with Congress in the adoption of measures to increase the silver change of the country, but so as not to impair obligations or contracts. public or private, nor to injuriously affect the public credit. It was only on the conviction that this bill did not meet that essential requirement, that he felt it his duty to withhold from it his approval. The message fur ther states that the capital defect of the bill is that it contains no provision protecting from its operation pre-existing debts, in case the coinage which it creates shall continue of less value than that which was the sole legal tender when they were created. In the judgment of mankind it would be an act of bad faith. The standard of value should not be changed without the consent of both parties to the contract.

The national promises should be kept with as flinching fidelity. He could not sign a bill wich would authorize the breaking of enered obligations. The obligation of the pubhe faith and credit certainly transcendall questions of profit, or public advantage. Its unquestionable maintainance was the dictate, as well of honesty, as of experience, and should ever be carefully guarded by the excentive, by Congress, and by the people.

Washington, Feb. 28-3 r. M.-The Silver bill has passed the House over the President's veto, by a vote of 196 to 73.

Washington, Feb. 28.—The Senate at 4 o clock passed the Silver bill over the President's veto, without debate, by a vote of 56

STRIKE IN THE FOURTH OF JULY lars per quarter. MINE

We are informed that a haudsome ore body was found in the lower workings of the Fourth of July mine on Sunday last. This ye'n is exposed to a width of two feet, and the ir dications are very promising that it will expand into a large deposit. The perseverance and pluck of the owners deserve rich reward, and we hope that the above presages a rich wmanza to them.

The above is from the Eureka Sentinel of the 26th, received yesterday, and will be of interest to many of our citizens. Most of the stock is held here.

London, Feb. 28.—The Standard says: "All that is really implied by the selection of ter-Lord Napier of Magala as Commander-in-Chief, and Sir Garnet Woolsey as his Chiefof St. ff, is that the terms of peace. if not moditied, cannot be sanctioned. We have been brought face to face with war by the errogant and aggressive policy of Russia." The Standard sublishes another article discussing the prod ble landing places of the British forces heat he Sea of Marieora. The writer thinks Best. Bay the most probable place. This is mere star ise, but the article shows a very war-like tone.

THE SILVER BILL PASSED.

By reference to our telegraphic despatches t will be seen that the Silver Bill has been passed over the President's veto. We expected he would do so and that he would be so done by. The bill is now a law and the silver dollar is a legal tender. Nevada rejoices over the victory.
